

Tell us how to make self-collection tests better so we can help stop cervical cancer

Who can join?

These workshops are for people with physical and sensory disabilities who:

- are aged 24-74
- are women or other people who have a cervix
- live in Australia

(These people might have other disabilities too).

Workshop options: between August and October 2025

Workshops in-person in Melbourne

You don't need to know about self-collection or cervical screening to join.

Online Workshops (on Zoom)

For people who have tried self-collection, even if it did not work for you.

We will help make the workshops accessible for you.

Gift voucher cards are available after the workshop for people who take part
